President's Message

Dear Friends,

As artists we are constantly growing and evolving. Every visual experience, every art exhibit we visit, every workshop or class we take, inspires and challenges us to try something new. There it is always a different subject matter, technique or style to interest us.

This Spring and early Summer, PAL is offering us many opportunities to expand our artistic vision. The feedback from attendees of the Randena Walsh's Pastel and Watercolor Workshop stated they were very inspired and challenged to experiment with a new media and creative possibilities.

On June 14 we will be hosting a Watercolor Workshop taught by John Adams, an accomplished artist from BI whose watercolors are currently exhibited at the North West Watercolor Society Show at the Convention Center in Seattle.

We will have an opportunity to see his work, as well as paintings by PAL members Judy Guttormsen and Pricilla Preus, during a field trip to the NW Watercolor Society Show on June 3. As it is "Free Admission Day" at the Seattle Art Museum, SAM, we will also visit their galleries before heading home on the ferry. See Current Event Section for details.

Another chance to learn and grow will be offered during our regular Wednesday meetings during the month of July as Dick Daugherty will give a demonstration on linear perspective. The date to be announced.

I hope you will take advantage of some of these wonderful opportunities. Visit a local gallery, take advantage of the many art walks in the area and keep on evolving!

Lisa Stowers

PAL NOTABLES

Mary Heffner is our PAL Notable of the Month.....

"It is important for artists to work and share with one another, so in 1983 I co-founded the Poulsbo Artist League where members encourage each other, provide occasional instructions, workshops, lectures and meet weekly to paint together. In 1987 Elizabeth Haney and I formed the Verksted Gallery in downtown Poulsbo which now represents up to 40 artists of many mediums."

She has been the quintessential member and co-founder of PAL. SEE her Website: <http://www.verkstedgallery.com/maryheffner/> WAY to Go, Mary! So happy to have you in our LIVES.....

PAL News

Sad News. Our hearts go out to the family of PAL Member, Paul C. Haines, who passed away May 5, 2010. He was a frequent exhibitor of his work for many years and enjoyed being a member of our organization. No one will ever forget the fantastic Zebra. He will be missed.

May 17— Randena Walsh's Workshop was a great success and has received wonderful compliments. Thank you attendees for making this a successful learning experience. <http://randenawalsh.com>

Priscilla Preus, Event Coordinator

Look for her other classes on Artists Edge Web Site linked on our front page.

Schooner Lavengro May 19

Schooner Lavengro outing didn't bring a lot of you out to enjoy the sunny weather for the 1st Group, however, the 2nd group was sorely tested for their seamanship abilities and got completely soaked by 40kt wind and rain. We all enjoyed the excursion and camaraderie. Kudos to Nancy Sefton for filming and photographing the event.

Thank you, fellow sailors, for your generous donations. <http://schoonerlavengro.org>

Exhibits by PAL Members

"Red Book"

Lisa would like to update the Red Book process and review all venues in the area as to how we can exhibit PAL Members' work. If you have any ideas or a venue in mind, please let her know. A New Committee is being formed and we wish everyone to be involved. Put on your thinking and marketing hats on and give us your opinions and suggestions. More information we know, the better we can serve the membership. Please volunteer as a committee member, we need your input. More to come.....

Summer Clean-Up Time — Do you know where your Profile is? We would like everyone to work on updating their profiles for insertion into the Artist's Profile Book and on the Web Page. Also, Hold Harmless forms need to be updated as well.
